

Relocating to

ATLANTA

Synergis calls Atlanta home, and we couldn't be happier to be part of this vibrant city. Come join us in the ATL – we think you'll love it too!

Population

Atlanta is the 9th largest U.S. metropolitan area in the country.

Economy

Atlanta is the major commercial & transportation hub of the Southeast.

Industry

Fortune 500 companies such as Delta, CNN & more call Atlanta home.

Capital

Atlanta is both the capital and the largest city in the state of Georgia.

Opportunity

Atlanta ranks #9 in MoneyGeek's "top U.S. cities for job seekers" list.

Popularity

Georgia ranks third in U.S. film production, according to CNBC.

Living in Atlanta

Temperatures in Atlanta average 89 degrees in July and 52 degrees in January. And the best part is we have all 4 seasons!

The city is split into neighborhoods like Midtown, Buckhead, East Atlanta, etc. all linked by our public transit system, MARTA.

Homes in Atlanta are growing in value, with a $375k average median sales price for a single-family home, according to RoofStack.

Make sure you visit Piedmont Park, The Fox Theatre, Georgia Aquarium, Ponce City Market, The Varsity and Olympic Park.

Atlanta sports are year-round consisting of Braves baseball, United soccer, Hawks & Dream basketball and Falcons football.

Atlanta fun facts

The National Forest Service has dubbed Atlanta the "City in a Forest" because nearly 48% of the city is covered in trees.

Your GPS might get confused if you punch in "Peachtree" as your destination. There are 71 streets with a variation of "Peachtree."

The Atlanta Beltline links 45 in-town neighborhoods with Metro Atlanta and includes 33 miles of multi-use trails.

Lots of airports claim to be the world's busiest. But Hartsfield-Jackson Atlanta International Airport is truly the busiest in the world.

The Peachtree Road Race takes place every Fourth of July and is the largest 10K footrace in the world with more than 60K people.

